

Fact Sheet

Reformed Forum is a reformed theological media network. The forum seeks to serve the church by advancing Christian education through the creation, production and distribution of Christian resources. Reformed Forum offers several podcasts and blogs, which comprise an integrated network.

Programs

Christ the Center - weekly conversation of reformed theology

Reformed Media Review - a look at books and culture from a reformed perspective

Philosophy for Theologians - philosophical and apologetic discussion and analysis

Proclaiming Christ - a weekly sermon from various reformed pastors

Reformed Classics - readings in classic reformed works

Historia Ecclesia - lectures and discussion in church history

Network Sites

ReformedForum.org - premier portal for reformed theological content, including network podcasts

ReformedForum.tv - livestreaming and on-demand reformed video

FeedingOnChrist.com - resources for pastors

HistoriaSalutis.com - blog devoted to reformed biblical theology

ReformedFamily.org - resources for covenant families

Funding

The Reformed Forum network is community supported. As the size of our listenership grows, the added demand increases the cost of distributing our resources. Additional costs are also incurred as we continue to branch out into online video and other new media. We rely on the generous support of individuals and churches to cover the cost of producing and distributing our audio, video and web content. Reformed Forum is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit charitable organization. Donations to Reformed Forum are tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law. EIN#: 27-2306841

Doctrinal Standards

As an organization, Reformed Forum subscribes to the Westminster Confession of Faith as adopted by the Orthodox Presbyterian Church. However, guests on our programs may or may not subscribe to the standards.
